CAUSE

Ms Hamilton was excused from the full time work requirement because she was allegedly attending school on a full time basis. She initially was able to verify this. However, in June 06, this officer asked for updated verification of enrollment. She provided a fraudulent document for this purpose. Upon checking with the school, it was learned that she was not currently enrolled. She was confronted about this and agreed to electronic monitored home detention as a sanction and she will also seek employment. (Prob 49 Consent to Modify enclosed)

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing. I further understand that all previously imposed conditions will remain in effect.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

The defendant shall comply with the conditions of home detention for a period not to exceed six (6) months. During this time, you will remain at your place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by your probation officer. The defendant shall pay a portion or the total cost of electronic monitoring services at the daily rate provided by the U.S. Probation Office based on the defendant's ability to pay. The daily rate is subject to periodic adjustment. These payments will be made on a schedule approved by the probation officer.
